Massachusetts Association of Criminal Defense Lawyers

2011 Advanced Post-Conviction Litigation Skills Seminar

Co-Sponsored by CPCS, Westlaw and Fujitsu • Hosted by WilmerHale

Friday, June 24, 2011 • 10:00 a.m. - 5:30 p.m.

This tremendously popular continuing legal education program will address selected problems faced by post-conviction counsel. Although the topics will be addressed at the advanced level, this is a great seminar for both new and experienced trial and post-conviction counsel.

This year's topics will include:

- Framing Arguments to Get Around Harmless Error in Difficult Melendez-Diaz Cases
- Second Amendment Cases in Massachusetts
- Know Your Client – Culture Matters!
- Client Relations for Post-Conviction Counsel
- Issue Spotting in SORB and SDP Cases
- Obligations of Defense Counsel Under Padilla Beyond Immigration
- Admission of Out-Of-Court Statements after Crawford
- Writs of Certiorari to the Massachusetts Superior Court
- Appreciating the History of Cross-Examination
- A New Look at Reply Briefs
- Prosecutorial Misconduct – Improper Closing Arguments
- The CPCS Innocence Program
- New Frontiers of Punishment: Settled Law and Open Questions
- The Nightmares of Massachusetts Parole

Progrom Coordinator and Seminar Moderator:
Steve Maidman
